Seoul The Five Royal Palaces of Seoul

The five palaces of Seoul are royal palaces of the Joseon Dynasty and symbols of Korea's culture and history. Each palace has its unique charms: Gyeongbokgung Palace, the roya residence: Changdeokgung Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage Site inscribed in 1997 with remarkable beauty; Deoksugung Palace, a combination of Korean aesthetics and Western architecture: Changgyeonggung Palace, now restored from the damages caused by Japanese occupation: and Gyeonghuigung Palace, humble and simple.
